Nearby restaurants include El Malecon and Antonio's on the corner of W. 1st Street and Sierra, an easy walk. Leave your car at the Museum, turn right on Mill Street, then take the 1st right onto Lake Street and pass under the famous Reno sign and cross the Truckee River.

Just across the bridge, turn left along the riverbank on the Truckee River Walk. At the third street crossing (Sierra Street), turn right and several restaurants are one block ahead.

If you are in the mood for a little gaming, a couple of casinos are two blocks away on W. 2nd Street.

At this point you have a decision to make about your return drive. You can either 1.) go straight back the way you came, 2.) Go back the way you came with a detour into Carson City (museums and Old West Town) or 3.) take a journey through Truckee.

VISITING CARSON CITY

If you are up for a bit more history, you might make a stop in Carson City on the way back. The capital of Nevada has a nice old town. To reach the town center, as you are driving back from Reno, take Exit 8 (North Carson Street). In 2.5 miles the Nevada State Museum is on the right. A bit further along is the State Capital on the left, and then the Nevada State Railroad Museum. Note that Carson City is kind of beer brewing hub, so you will find several breweries in town. Just continue on Carson (Business US 395) until you reach the intersection with Hwy 50, turn right (big green sign for South Lake Tahoe) and return to the Hotel (22 miles).

THE TRUCKEE LOOP

This detour adds about an hour to the return trip and takes you west over I-80 and then south on scenic Hwy 89 and around the west side of the lake. Downtown Truckee offers lots of food and shopping and an Old West vibe. Worth a stop.
